3rd Sunday of Lent

Dear friends and parishioners,

It seems, I know, that the Pastor is always asking for money I'm not going to stop doing that...we need it. However, I do want to say how wonderful it has been to see your generosity in the weeks past. It is so good to see your love for this parish and your brothers and sisters in Christ. It is really a reflection of your love for Him.

I warned you I wasn't going to stop asking and so I want to remind you that we have to remain aware of our responsibility to support the Archdiocesan Services through DSF. In a couple of weeks we will give you a reminder at Mass. Please return your DSF pledges as soon as possible. They can be placed in any collection. Please also be supportive in every way of our Parish Festival. The sale of raffle tickets is an essential part of our fundraising and we need all your support. Please pickup and return your tickets. We need every family to take a part in making the Festival a success.

Starting this month, we will replace the Parish Projects collection with a collection to repay what was lent to us by the Archdiocese to complete the purchase of the corner property at 805 Shaver. Final details of the finances for this purchase will be available shortly, but we will owe the Archdiocese approximately $50,000.00. If you have a good name for this collection, I am open to suggestions. "Property Fund" seems rather dull.

Within the next few weeks, the Finance Council will be presenting our preliminary 3rd Quarter Financial Statements and providing a glimpse ahead to the budget for next year. They will also be available after most of the Masses if you have questions.

As we follow Jesus on his journey to Jerusalem during this Lenten Season, "let us set our hearts for the way" (Oramos Cantando #411)

Fr. Joe

Queridos amigos y parroquianos,

Parece, lo sé, que el Párroco siempre está pidiendo dinero. No voy a dejar de hacer eso ... lo necesitamos. Sin embargo, sí quiero decir que ha sido maravilloso ver su generosidad en las semanas pasadas. Es tan bueno ver a su amor por esta parroquia y por sus hermanos y hermanas en Cristo. En realidad es un reflejo de su amor por Él.

Les advertí que no me iba a dejar de pedir y por eso quiero recordarles que tenemos que ser conscientes de nuestra responsabilidad de apoyar a los servicios de la Arquidiócesis por medio de DSF. En dos semanas les daremos a ustedes un recordatorio durante la Misa. Por favor devuelva sus compromisos a DSF tan pronto como sea posible. Pueden ponerlos en cualquiera colecta. Por favor también prestar apoyo en todas maneras de nuestro Festival Parroquial. La venta de boletos de la rifa es una parte esencial de nuestra recaudación de fondos y necesitamos todo su apoyo. Por favor, recoger y devolver sus boletos. Necesitamos que cada familia tome parte para que la Fiesta sea un éxito.

A partir de este mes, reemplazaremos la colección Proyectos Parroquiales con una colecta para pagar lo que se prestó a nosotros por el Arquidiócesis para realizar la compra de la propiedad en 805 Shaver. Los detalles finales de las finanzas de esta compra estarán disponibles dentro de poco tiempo, pero en breve vamos a deber el Arquidiócesis aproximadamente $ 50,000.00. Si usted tiene un buen título para esta colecta, estoy abierto a sugerencias. "Fondo de Propiedad" parece más bien aburrido.

Dentro de las próximas semanas, el Consejo Financiero va a presentar un reporte preliminar de nuestras finanzas al fin de 3er Trimestre y darnos una visión por delante para el presupuesto del próximo año. Si tiene preguntas, miembros del Consejo estarán disponibles después e cada misa.

Mientras seguimos a Jesús en su viaje a Jerusalén durante este tiempo de Cuaresma, "nuestras almas listas están" (Oramos Cantando # 411).

Padre Joe

Parish Social Ministry Update

We believe the Church's social mission is an essential measure of every parish community...We need to build local communities of faith where our social teaching is central, not fringe; where social ministry is integral, not optional; where it is the work of every believer, not just the mission of a few committed people and committees. (Communities of Salt and Light, 6-7)

Thank you~The Office of Parish Social Ministry is extremely grateful to our parish and volunteers for your wonderful support. During the month of January, 503 Individuals (166 Households) received food benefits from the food pantry. In addition, several families avoided eviction and utility bills were paid in January. Every time you give to the PSM second collection, God provides for an individual / family in need. Thank you!

The Pantry is in need of the following items: Tuna Fish...Canned Fruit/Mixed...Canned Vegetables/Mixed...Peanut Butter/Jelly Toiletry Items (soap, tooth brushes, tooth paste, deodorant (men and women), unused combs and brushes, new hand towels)

New Core Member Training

If you'd like to make a difference in someone's life, then consider the Parish Social Ministry "Food Pantry Team." Join us for a training on Saturday, March 7, 2015 at 10:00 a.m. in the PLC Conference Room. You'll have an opportunity to learn about the work of ministering to the poor & needy, and new programming coming to St. Pius V like ESL. Please RSVP by calling the PSM Office at (713) 473-9484 ext. 316, or email SPVPSM@gmail.com before Wednesday, March 4, 2015.

First Reading Ex 20:1-3, 7-8, 12-17

In those days, God delivered all these commandments:

“I, the LORD am your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt, that place of slavery. You shall not have other gods besides me. “You shall not take the name of the LORD, your God, in vain. For the LORD will not leave unpunished the one who takes his name in vain.

“Remember to keep holy the sabbath day. Honor your father and your mother, that you may have a long life in the land which the Lord, your God, is giving you. You shall not kill. You shall not commit adultery. You shall not steal. You shall not bear false witness against your neighbor. You shall not covet your neighbor’s house. You shall not covet your neighbor’s wife, nor his male or female slave, nor his ox or ass, nor anything else that belongs to him.”

Responsorial Psalm Ps 19 (OC#835) R. Lord, you have the words of everlasting life.

Second Reading 1 Cor 1:22-25

Brothers and sisters: Jews demand signs and Greeks look for wisdom, but we proclaim Christ crucified, a stumbling block to Jews and foolishness to Gentiles, but to those who are called, Jews and Greeks alike, Christ the power of God and the wisdom of God. For the foolishness of God is wiser than human wisdom, and the weakness of God is stronger than human strength.

Gospel Jn 2:13-25

Since the Passover of the Jews was near, Jesus went up to Jerusalem. He found in the temple area those who sold oxen, sheep, and doves, as well as the money changers seated there. He made a whip out of cords and drove them all out of the temple area, with the sheep and oxen, and spilled the coins of the money changers and overturned their tables, and to those who sold doves he said, “Take these out of here, and stop making my Father’s house a marketplace.”

His disciples recalled the words of Scripture, Zeal for your house will consume me. At this the Jews answered and said to him, “What sign can you show us for doing this?” Jesus answered and said to them, “Destroy this temple and in three days I will raise it up.” The Jews said, “This temple has been under construction for forty-six years, and you will raise it up in three days?” But he was speaking about the temple of his body. Therefore, when he was raised from the dead, his disciples remembered that he had said this, and they came to believe the Scripture and the word Jesus had spoken.

While he was in Jerusalem for the feast of Passover, many began to believe in his name when they saw the signs he was doing. But Jesus would not trust himself to them because he knew them all, and did not need anyone to testify about human nature. He himself understood it well.

Note: For the celebration of the Scrutinies with the Catechumens, the following Readings may be used: Ex 17:3-7; Ps 95; Rom 5:1-2,5-8; Jn 4:5-22.

Primera Lectura Ex 20, 1-3. 7-8. 12-17

En aquellos días, el Señor promulgó estos preceptos para su pueblo en el monte Sinaí, diciendo:

“Yo soy el Señor, tu Dios, que te sacó de la tierra de Egipto y de la esclavitud. No tendrás otros dioses fuera de mí. No harás mal uso del nombre del Señor, tu Dios, porque no dejará el Señor sin castigo a quien haga mal uso de su nombre.

Acuérdate de santificar el sábado. Honra a tu padre y a tu madre para que vivas largos años en la tierra que el Señor, tu Dios, te va a dar. No matarás. No cometerás adulterio. No robarás. No darás falso testimonio contra tu prójimo. No codiciarás la casa de tu prójimo, ni a su mujer, ni a su esclavo, ni a su esclava, ni su buey, ni su burro, ni cosa alguna que le pertenezca”.

Salmo Responsorial Salmo 18 (OC#835) R. Señor, Señor, tú tienes palabras de vida eterna.

Segunda Lectura 1 Cor 1, 22-25

Hermanos: Los judíos exigen señales milagrosas y los paganos piden sabiduría. Pero nosotros predicamos a Cristo crucificado, que es escándalo para los judíos y locura para los paganos; en cambio, para los llamados, sean judíos o paganos, Cristo es la fuerza y la sabiduría de Dios. Porque la locura de Dios es más sabia que la sabiduría de los hombres, y la debilidad de Dios es más fuerte que la fuerza de los hombres.

Evangelio Jn 2, 13-25

Cuando se acercaba la Pascua de los judíos, Jesús llegó a Jerusalén y encontró en el templo a los vendedores de bueyes, ovejas y palomas, y a los cambistas con sus mesas. Entonces hizo un látigo de cordeles y los echó del templo, con todo y sus ovejas y bueyes; a los cambistas les volcó las mesas y les tiró al suelo las monedas; y a los que vendían palomas les dijo: “Quiten todo de aquí y no conviertan en un mercado la casa de mi Padre”.

En ese momento, sus discípulos se acordaron de lo que estaba escrito: El celo de tu casa me devora. Después intervinieron los judíos para preguntarle: “¿Qué señal nos das de que tienes autoridad para actuar así?” Jesús les respondió: “Destruyan este templo y en tres días lo reconstruiré”. Replicaron los judíos: “Cuarenta y seis años se ha llevado la construcción del templo, ¿y tú lo vas a levantar en tres días?” Pero él hablaba del templo de su cuerpo. Por eso, cuando resucitó Jesús de entre los muertos, se acordaron sus discípulos de que había dicho aquello y creyeron en la Escritura y en las palabras que Jesús había dicho.

Mientras estuvo en Jerusalén para las fiestas de Pascua, muchos creyeron en él, al ver los prodigios que hacía. Pero Jesús no se fiaba de ellos, porque los conocía a todos y no necesitaba que nadie le descubriera lo que es el hombre, porque él sabía lo que hay en el hombre.

Nota: En la celebración de los Escrutinios con los catechumenos, se puede usar las lecturas siguientes: Ex 17:3-7; Ps 94; Rom 5:1-2,5-8; Jn 4:5-22

Notes from the music office:

Special thanks to the guitarist Sam Rodriguez who provided music last Sunday for our 8am service... a wonderful meditation and a fitting example of "less is enough" in Lent. Thanks also to the small choir who will perform this Sunday. Back to regular Tuesday rehearsals this week for Easter music!

Congratulations to the young singers/ringers who are part of the Cardinal CircleChoir-preparing to sing at mass in April for those who donate $5000 (or more) annually to the 13 inner city schools in our ArchDiocese (including St. Pius V).

Meanwhile, if you have a palm tree with long narrow fronds... let the office know? We'll trim 16-20 for our Palm Sunday processions.

AND AND AND AND

ATTENTION MEN AND BOYS: Pasadena Little Theatre is presenting "Sound of Music" this May 1-May 17. Auditions are Sunday March 8th at 3pm - 4318 Allen-Genoa Rd, Pasadena, 77504, 30 seconds of singing, and a few minutes of script reading. (Several of the male parts do not included singing)

The Chrism mass is Tuesday March 31 at the Cocathedral - come this year if you've never been...It's not quite heaven on earth, but it's close!! And an excellent way to understand more of the symbols of Easter...

Meanwhile, stay healthy and accident-free, and nap to adjust to DSTime J

Notice Regarding Important Virtus Updates:

The timeframe for taking Keeping the Promise Alive refresher has changed. In the past everyone was allowed a full calendar year to attend in order to remain in compliance. With the changes made recently, the timeframe is now based on anniversary date not calendar year. For example, if someone took the PGC class on July 8, 2009 they would have had until December 31, 2014 to complete the KPA class, however, with the new changes in the VIRTUS system they now have until July 8, 2015 to attend. This applies to both, volunteers and employees, parish and school.

Reminder:

Make sure your ID is not expired. If it is, you will not be allowed to stay and attend a session.

Many of you have asked what training will come after KPA. At this time there is nothing in place. For the few who attended in August 2011, they will not be due until after August 2016. We will keep you informed.

Nota Sobre Información Importante de Virtus:

El tiempo para tomar el curso Manteniendo la promesa viva (Keeping the Promise Alive) ha cambiado. En el pasado se les permitía a todos todo un año para atender al curso. Los cambios nuevos son de que el tiempo está ahora basado en la fecha de aniversario y no en el calendario. Por ejemplo, si alguien tomo el curso el 8 de julio del 2009, hubieran tenido hasta el 31 de diciembre del 2014 para tomar el curso, sin embargo, con los cambios nuevos en el sistema de Virtus ahora tienen hasta el 8 de julio del 2015 para atender. Esto se aplica para los dos, los voluntarios y los empleados de la escuela y de la parroquia.

Recuerden:

Asegúrense de que su ID no esté vencida. Si lo está, no se le permitirá quedarse y participar en el curso.

Muchos han preguntado sobre qué entrenamiento va a seguir después de MPV. Al momento no hay nada programado. Para los que tomaron el curso en agosto del 2011, no tendrán que tomarlo hasta el agosto del 2016. Los mantendremos informados.

Merlin Cruz, our bookkeeper, who had taken leave to recover from an illness, died on Monday, March 3rd. He was a good and gentle man, who offered his great talents to the parish out of generosity, in service to the Lord and His people. He will be greatly missed. Please pray for the repose of his soul and for the consolation of his wife and children.

Eternal rest grant unto him, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon him. Amen.
